

PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release
Contact: Andrew Leech
386-947-5423

Gateway Bank Hosts Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Bank Night

October 10, 2014 – (Daytona Beach, Florida) – Andrew Leech, Vice President, Area Retail Manager of Gateway Bank of Florida, announced today that the bank is proud to support this year's Making Strides for Breast Cancer Event, a walk to raise money for the American Cancer Society to continue their fight against breast cancer. The Making Strides of Volusia/Flagler walk will be held on Saturday, October 25 at the Jackie Robinson Ballpark.

Gateway will host Bank Night for participants to register for the event, turn in their individual or team donations, and enjoy refreshments all while avoiding the lines on Saturday morning. This will be Gateway's third year hosting Bank Night, which will take place on Wednesday, October 22 from 5-8pm at their Daytona Beach location, located at 1950 W. International Speedway Blvd.

"Gateway proudly supports the Making Strides event each year because we are committed to the fight against breast cancer. This is a personal fight too, we all have been affected by breast cancer. Whether it's our co-worker, spouse, neighbor or friend, we want see breast cancer defeated. I hope everyone comes out on the 22nd and 25th in support of the survivors and to make a difference in someone's life," said Leech.

About the American Cancer Society: The American Cancer Society funds research to prevent, fight, and cure breast cancer. ACS provides information, services, and access to care for those who need them. For more information about the American Cancer Society call 1-800-227-2345 or visit www.cancer.org.